The Flamborough Chamber of Commerce (FCC) was honoured to host Ontario Premier Kathleen Wynne (above, centre) at its annual Outstanding Business Achievement (OBA) awards gala at the Flamborough Hills Golf & Country Club recently. The annual gala 'honours and celebrates the very best in corporate excellence and community service' in Flamborough. After a meet-and-greet reception with the sold-out crowd, the new premier shared some thoughts about Ontario's future. She then participated in the first presentation of the evening – the Young Entrepreneur of the Year Award to Sarah Powell (third from left) of Sarah Grace Photography. Joining Premier Wynne and Sarah for a photo after the presentation were (from left) Dragica Lebo (Youth Project Manager, Small Business Enterprise Centre – City of Hamilton), Ancaster-Dundas-Flamborough-Westdale MPP – and Minister of Community and Social Services – Ted McMeekin, past recipients Nicole Martin (Talent Search Summer Camp) and Haley Luckanuck (Spoiled Rotten Pet Services). Representing the FCC Board of Directors was (right) Teresa Luckanuck. BELOW: The FCC awarded its prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award to Tim Langford and posthumously to Wilf and Tom Langford (all of the former Langford Pharmacy) and James (Jim) Aitkin of Rankin Environmental. Pictured (below, left) with Tim Langford (second from left) are (from left) FCC Treasurer Graham Flint (FORCE - Friends of Rural Communities and the Environment), Ancaster-Dundas-Flamborough-Westdale MP David Sweet and FCC President Jason Small (Community Church). Joyce Aitkin (below, right) along with her sons Chris (left) and Paul accepted the award on behalf of their late husband and father.
